
of the YMCA, Karachi for many years. Traveled world-over in connection with the YMCA programmes.

[* Punjab Karachi]

DAUDPOTA, Dr.Mohammad Umer Bin. A prominent scholar and educationist of Sindh, was deeply committed to the expansion of education amongst the masses. Undertook adult literacy drives for over three decades throughout Sindh and clamored for the enactment of the law for the enforcement of compulsory education. Also strived for the opening of colleges in the interior Districts of Sindh and himself established an Arabic College in Hyderabad.....

CV: M.A. Ph.D (Cambridge) Authored more than 25 books and headed several Colleges in Sindh

[*.. Hyderabad]

DAWOOD, Seth, Ahmed

A well-known philanthropist, Seth Ahmed Dawood, has made immense contributions in education and welfare services. Besides his multi-million Dawood Foundation, established the Dawood College of Engineering & Technology; the Dawood Public School besides other educational and health welfare centers in different cities. Also contributed millions for the development of public causes besides immense financial support to the Voluntary Organizations including the Al-Shifa Eye Hospital, Rawalpindi. Sponsored the formation of the United Memon Jamaat (merging three separate Jamaats), which now has a network of over 75 units all over the country.

Dedicately patronized cultural and literary activities and instituted the Dawood Literary Award.

National Honor/ Tittle : Hilal e-Khidmat

CV: Leading industrialist

*Bantva-1905 Karachi-2002

DINSHAW,

Alloomai Minocher.

“...A philanthropic known for enormous charities,...created funds to fill every need of the indigent...”. Regarded as a strong pillar of the KZBB, the Karachi Ladies Assn. and other prestigious Parsee organizations. Extended considerable momentum to many Voluntary Organizations and educational institutions to develop their services.

DINSHAW

Behram

Well-known for high constructive role in the progress of his Parsee community. The late Avari. Pioneered the establishment of their housing colonies for scores of indigent families Remained actively associated with many welfare and public causes of the metropolis leading Voluntary Organizations including the Red Crescent for almost lifetime. Was actively associated with the numerous national and international level forums held in Karachi besides lavishly entertaining the Delegates at his Beach Luxury Hotel. Founder President of the Assn. for the Welfare of Adult Deaf & Dumb and liberally contributed for the construction of its building the ADD Center atop the KMC's Frere Market.

CV/ General: A leading hotelier of the country and owner of the 5-Star Beach Luxury and the Avari Hotels in Karachi, Lahore and Islamabad.

*Karachi Karachi

DINSHAW,

Khursheed Banu Hoshang.

With a pretty long life (104 years), well-known undertook intensive research in the disease along with the legendary Dr. Ruth Pfau at the MALC and with the support of the Federal Ministry of Health together laid the ambitious foundation of the 'Leprosy Eradication Plan for Pakistan' within a well-targeted period.

CV: MBBS FRCS

* Bombay Poona

DOONGURSEE, Seth Manoohhai. Joined his father's business in 1921, and was appointed Broker of Messrs. David Sassoon & Co., Ltd., as partner of his father in 1924. He was a member of the Board of Karachi Port Trust 1930-32, Vice-President of Buyers and Shippers' Chamber, having served on its Committee for over 15 years. Senior Vice-President of the Karachi Indian Merchants' Association for 1936 and 1941 and President of the Gujarati Education Society for over 16 years. Manoobhai was a member of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals, Karachi Health Association, a Trustee of the Gujarati Education Society Trust and Health Association, Managing Partner of the firm of Doongursee and Sons, Director, Sind Observer and Mercantile Steam Press Ltd. He was also Director of the Sind Daily Mail Ltd., The Bombay Fire and General Insurance Co., Ltd., & The Hindusthan Safe Deposit Co., Ltd., and was a member of the Local Committee of the Bank of India Ltd., Hon : Secretary, Ayurvedic Tuberculosis Relief Association, Assistant Secretary, Ramkrishna Mission and a member of the Managing Committee of the Karachi Panjrapore Association

EFFENDI K.B. Hassanali.

He had a romantic career. He started his life as a Munshi on Rs.16/- only. He learnt English from a Christian Clerk and got a job at Kotri on Boat the Steamer. Here he perfected his knowledge of English because he came in contact with many English people. He wanted to practise as a Pleader and was preparing himself for Sind pleader's examination when the Judicial Commissioner in Sind of the time allowed him to practise before he qualified for the Bar. He rose to be the Public Prosecutor of Sind and was offered the judgeship of Small Causes Court of Karachi, which offer he thankfully declined.

He was elected as a member of Bombay

Legislative Council in 1891, as the representative of Sind Zamindars. Late Khan Bahadur Hassanali, seeing the poor condition of Muslims of Sind did not rest till he had founded for them a High School in Karachi. He went from place to place to collect funds for Sind Madressah Tul Islam and succeeded in establishing one of the best High schools for Muslims in Sind.

The late Khan Bahadur was the pioneer of Muslim education in Sind and did a lot to spread education among the Muslims of this Province. He started the Muslim Education Association in Sind which has been doing good work for the cause of education among the Muslims.

It was entirely due to the efforts of Khan Bahadur Hassanali that Sindhi Muslims were educated, who today are rubbing shoulders with the members of their sister Communities of Sind. He was one of the most colourful personalities of Sind. Due to his valuable Social Services rendered by him, he earned title of EFFENDI from Turkish Government

FEROZEPORWALA, Seth Mulla Isaji Ismailji.

He was the proprietor of the famous and well known firm of Messrs. Ismailji Alibhoy & Son, Ferozeporewalla, dealing in general wares on Builder Road, Karachi. The firm representing some of the world reputed Manufacturers such as R. E. Dietz Co., New York, World's biggest Makers of Hurricane lanterns, Messrs. Masters Locks Co., U. S. A., Messrs. Husqvarna Vapen fabriks, Sweden, Manufacturers of Household wares and many other well-known manufacturers. He was Hon : Secretary of Faize-Hakimi, the committee of Dawoodi Bohra Jamait of Karachi, also a trustee of Faize-Husaini a world wide Bohra pilgrim organisation. He was the Vice-Chairman of Mohomediyah School Board, and Chairman of Quettawalla Charitable Hospital

GABLA, N. F.

A noble-minded zealous and unassuming volunteer of Karachi. Was quite popular for his single-handed membership enrolment drives of each and every organization of which he was a dedicated member. Lived a very simple life and ever ready to serve the deserving people. Membership PRCS; KTS; IDRPA; PFWA; PPRS; KTBA. and several other well known Voluntary Organizations.

CV: B.E.; Electric Engineer.

Senior official of the KESC

*Karachi Karachi

GANATRA,

Hussain Ebrahim Jamal.

A leading social worker and a Justice of Peace of Bombay. Soon after his migration to Pakistan, quite actively engaged himself in the rehabilitation services of the Pakistan Memon Relief C'ttee. Made gigantic contributions for the establishment of the Hussainabad Memon Colony Karachi.

Membership: APMF (leading founding fathers); Pakistan Memon Educational & Welfare Society (President for 2 years).

* ...Karachi

GAZDAR,

Mohammad Hashim

A spirited worker of the Pakistan Movement, strived for the socio-economic development of the downtrodden. Actively associated with welfare services to the lacs of the in-coming refugees. Founder-President of several organizations, including those for the welfare of his Marwari community in K'chi.

CV & General: A leading political Muslim Leaguer of Sindh. Served as the Deputy Speaker of Pakistan's Constituent Assembly.

* ..Karachi

GETRITUDE,

Sister Lemmens

All way from Western Europe to Karachi with immense love and motherly care for the mentally retarded and autistic young children - many of them family-discarded. Founded the Darus-Sukoon for their ultimate care and shelter, where she served till death. Trained and enrolled scores of volunteers for the care and handling these special children.

*Belgium Karachi

GHANCHI, Ahmed E

Played a leading role in the founding of the All Pakistan Muslim Ghanchi Anjuman and its associated bodies Initiated its multifarious welfare activities including formation of the War-time First Aid and Civil Defence standby units (1965 & 1971. Strongly advocated essential social reforms and prevention of wasteful expenditure in wedding functions. Pioneered the establishment of the community's housing colony and a multi-purpose complex in Baldia Colony and North Nazimabad respectively. besides a ladies handicraft center and a primary school. CV : B.A.LLB. Retired Deputy Secretary Govt. of Sndh

*Gujrat India Karachi

GHANI, Ahmed A.R

A philanthropist in his own rights and active concerned in the national causes Ahmed Ghani is reputed for presented a handsome amount to the Prime Minister Liaquat Ali Khan for having the National Anthem composed.

Migrated to Karachi during 1943 and soon got actively involved in the educational and welfare activities. Was keen to provide technical education for the better future of the boys with average intelligence and donated a handsome amount to his Kutyana Memon Assn. for establishing a technical training institute.

Also donated liberal funds for the essential public causes and likewise assisted the deserving families.

Membership: Kutyana Memon Assn.; Kutyana Memon Volunteer Corps; Memon Club (Founder) besides other leading Voluntary Organizations.

GHULAM Mohyuddin

A multi-handicapped leprosy patient- armless, lame and blind, yet provided amazing and meritorious leadership to fellow-sufferers for many years.

Almost 100% successful in his relentless campaigns for their genuine causes. Founder-President of the West Pakistan Lepers Assn. (1955).

GIDUMAL, Diwan Dayaram.

Born on 30th of June 1957 at Hyderabad. He was a Philosopher, poet and scholar. He earned a big name and fame in Social services His books such as 'Something about Sindh', 'Jabuk (Man Lai)', & 'Sat Sahelyoon' etc are very important books in Sindhi literature. Set new trend of social services in Sindh and Hind. Founded so many Social organizations. At the eleventh hour of his age, he married a young girl, daughter of his friend. He breathed his last on 7th December 1929.

GIDWANI, R.B: Metharam Ajitsingh. He was Land Lord and Zamindar and one of the eminent personalities of Karachi District. He was a member of Karachi District Local Board for a number of years and was its Vice-President also. He was an Honorary Special Magistrate for a considerable period. He is a much respected Zamindar of his District and his rich experience was appreciated by Government by appointing him on various committees and honouring him with the title of Rai Bahadur. In the last period of his life retired from Zamindari life and did a lot of social work in his native place Hyderabad.

GOLWALLA, Fakirjee Perozshah. He was a Landlord, Zamindar, Merchant and Justice of Peace from Hyderabad. He was a member on the Excise Advisory Committee of the Hyderabad Sindh Cantonment Board. Non Official Visitor to the Sindh Convict Gang. Vice-President, Cantonment Board, Hyderabad Sind. Chairman, Bazar Committee of the Cantonment Board, Hyderabad Sind. Director on the Hyderabad (Sind) Mercantile Co-operative Bank, Ltd., Member, Red Cross Society. Life Member, Lady Dufferin Hospitals, Sindh. Member on the Nursing Association and on the Executive Committee. President, Educational Society, Hyderabad Sind. He was the District Scout Commissioner, Nawabshah. Member, the Provincial Scout Council, Karachi. Member on the Nursing Association, Nawabshah. Director on the Nawabshah Electric Supply Co., Proprietor of the firm of Messrs. Muncherjee & Co., Hyderabad.

GOPALRAO, Bhonsle

He was a Land Lord and Contractor and First Class Honorary Magistrate, Karachi, belonged to the famous Bhonsle family who had come to settle in Sindh in 1843. He was educated in Karachi as a student. He was an important member of Maratha Community of Karachi and was the President of Maratha Union for a number of years. He was the President of the Madhoo Muccadam Smashan and the Shivajee Memorial Fund. He was the Honorary Secretary of various Maratha Associations and Societies such as Libraries, Temples, Gymkhana.

He, for his services to his community, was made a Justice of Peace and First Class Honorary Magistrate. He was the Managing Partner of the most famous firm of the Dock Engineering and Welding Works of Keamari. He was a Government and Naval Contractor.

GURDINOMAL, Mukhi Mangharam. He was from Hyderabad and was educated at Cambridge and practised as a Barrister for some time. His business took him abroad where he lived for many years. He started the Hyderabad Electric Supply Corporation Ltd., and run it as its Managing Director for more than 23 years. He was elected as the President of Hindu Panchayat Federation. He was a member of D.

G. National College. It was entirely through his efforts that Om Mandli was banned. He took keen interest in Industries, Female education and Panchayats. He was the only Bhaibund who gave his daughters the highest education.

HAJI, Dr

A prominent authority in the civic development works, Dr. Haji sponsored the establishment of first-ever Municipal medical units in most neglect slum of the metropolis – the Lyari Quarters. Also arranged the re-settlement of the poor and homeless people. Equally active in Larkana as well, after retirement his services include education drives, provision of wells and the establishment of medical centres. A dedicated Red Crescent worker got established the first-ever Red Crescent Hospital, Larkana where the first-ever training of Mid-wives and Dais were conducted..

CV: MBBS.

*Karachi 1892 Karachi

HALEEM, Naseemuddin.

A very helpful young volunteer deeply attached to Sea-Scouting. Laid down his life in timely saving several young co-Scouts from getting drowned during their weekly swimming/boating exercises in the China Creek, where the erstwhile Sea Scouts Land-ship - the LS. Nussrwanjee was located (until recently). Always on the standby for voluntary services and actively assisted the PRCS-K'chi Br. during the two Indo-Pak. Wars.

*...Karachi

HARCHAND RAI, Seth Vishvandas
Hailed as one of the "great illustrious sons of Sindh and Father of modern Karachi", he served the country with considerable dedication and far-sight. Held in high esteem by one and all as a very noble and highly principled personality. Readily volunteered for all the important and essential social causes. Played quite a significant role in the eradication of the notorious killerepidemics- Plague.(1896-97) and later the equally deadly Influenza fever (1917-18). Personally helped the sufferers, besides closely supervising the free relief distribution of food, clothing as well as the medical care even far beyond Karachi. Much concerned at the sufferings of the local population of the Lyari Quarters from the recurring ailments and environmental hazards, arranged the cleaning-up of the highly polluted and dirty banks of River Lyari for the first time-ever.

National Honor /Title : CIE

CV & General: B.A.LL.B. A brilliant Advocate and a highly respected political authority at the national level. Active Member of the then Indian National Assembly. As a leading KMC Councilor embarking upon ambitious development of Karachi as a progressive and modern city initiated several essential facilities after several study-visits abroad on his own initiative and expenses.

*Manjh Tehsil, Kotri 1862

New Delhi-1928

HAROON, Sir Abdullah

A great legendary philanthropist and illustrious social worker, closely associated with Quaid-e-Azam. and the Pakistan Movement.

Founded several educational and welfare institutions including the Abdullah Haroon Orphanage, K;chi besides the huge Abdullah Haroon Charitable Wakfs. His piety and magnanimous charity knew no bounds.

General: A top-ranking leader of the All India Muslim League and spokesman of the Muslims of Sindh

*1872  Karachi 1942

HAROON,

Lady Nusrat Abdullah

Hand in hand with her above-named life-consort, Lady Nusrat rendered valuable welfare services. A very senior Co-Chief Founder of the APWA along with Begum Raana Liaquat Ali Khan, devoted considerable time and energy plus liberal funds for its marvelous progress.

* Iran  Karachi 1996

HIDAYATULLAH,
Begum Daulat

One of the forefront founders of the APWA along with her illustrious elders, and strenuously strived for the emancipation of women. Liberally contributed funds to different welfare causes. Represented country and the APWA in different international forums from time to time.

* Karachi Karachi -2004

HIDAYATULLAH,
Begum Sughra

Veteran social worker actively associated with many leading NGO's and Pakistan Girl Guides Assn. Also one of the leading founders of the APWA and the only Lady-President of the Pakistan Red Cross Society (Sindh Branch), ever had - (in her capacity as the First Lady of Sindh -wife of the then Governor-Sir Ghulam Hussain Hidayatullah which exalted position she continued to hold for a long time even after his death.

* Karachi

HIRANAND, Sadhu.

Son of Dewan Shoukiram, born on 23.03.1863 in Hyderabad. He did Matric in 1879 and B.A in 1883. He earned position of a role-model in our history. He remained very active leader of the first ever Socio-political organization of Sindh- "Sindh Sabha". He introduced the Congress in Sindh. He was a pioneer of "Barhmo samaj" in Sindh. Founded school in Hyderabad and published "Sarswati" & "Sudhar Patreeka" under his editorship. He intended to educate his daughters from reputed institution and went to Benar for this purpose where he breathed his last on 14.07.1893. He was one of those leaders who gave vision about the political thinking. Sadhu Hiranand influenced the social & political future of his country

HUNDRAJ,
Dewan Dukhyal

A leading advocate of the Hindu-Muslim unity, established the Goth Sewadal (later renamed Gandhi Khidmat Ghar, which had popular support of all the communities of Karachi. and their unreserved participation in its multifarious social and cultural activities. This center along with its medical and welfare units served as a model vocational training institute as well. Vigorously clamored for wide-spread education and the opening of schools in interior areas throughout Sindh. His dedications in social service and communal harmony earned him high appreciation from all over the region and beyond besides many recognition awards

*Larkana 1910  abroad.

HUSSAIN, Dr. S.A.

Founder-President of the Pakistan Conference of Social Work (1956). Advocated the need for widespread social welfare activities on scientific lines as well as professional training in the field. Greatly popularized the Cooperative Movement in this newly found country. Providing high-level professional and technical guidance for the formation of wide-spread Housing Cooperative Societies in particular to ease the acute housing problems of Karachi and other cities. CV: M.A.Ph.D. Marketing Advisor ® Govt. of Pakistan

*Lukhnow  Karachi.

IRFANULLAH,
Begum Sarwari

Took keen interest in social and welfare activities since school days in Ghorakpur. At quite a young age headed the local SPCA, besides actively serving on the War-time A.R.P.. (now the Civil Defence) set-up and the St. John Ambulance Assn. Soon after migration, entered headlong in welfare, cultural and political activities of Karachi.

CV & General: A leading and quite out-spoken female KMC Councilor and the only lady-MPA of the then West Pakistan Legislative Assembly (representing Karachi) quite successfully steered therein the many issues relating to the essential but much-neglected civic problems of the metropolis.

*Ghorakpur, India-1922 Karachi

JAFFER, Ahmed E

A highly charismatic and popular worker of the Pakistan Movement. Well-known for high patriotic service and nation - building activities and Pan-Islamism. Much devoted in the welfare services of the incoming refugees and founded the All Pakistan Mohajir Board, and the Murshed Hospital. Baldia Town. K'chi.

*Poona 1909 Karachi 1990

JAFFERI, Rahman Ali

A well known life-time Boy Scout of Larkana with over 50 years dedicated of service to the Movement. Hailed for his high-risk volunteerism in rescuing and life-saving services during a huge fire in Larkana (1939) and thereafter for arranging immense assistance in the relief and rehabilitation of the fire-victims. Very ably guided the youth in healthy activities and was regarded as a model of volunteerism.

National Awards: Certificate of Merit by the Chief Scout- the Viceroy of India. Viceroy's Certificate of Gallantry for the Rescue and Life-Saving Services.

*Larkana 1912 1988

JAFFER,

Seth Haji Mohammad

A popular volunteer of Mirpur Bathero who quite courageously voiced against the many local bureaucratic excesses - high-handedness, corruption, plunder and unbridled exploitation of the masses especially the poor peasants . Struggled for the reduction of revenue and other taxes in the areas badly-affected by floods or other natural hazards.

Got constructed the much-needed water-reservoir, link- roads market place; in his hometown Mirpur Bathero. Continuously strived for the promotion of the socio-economic uplift of the local Khawja communities in various areas of Badin. Provided generous donations for relief work, education and the publication of religious literature.

*Mirpur Bathero 1867..1959

JAMAL,

Abdul Latif Ebrahim

"...committed himself to the promotion of education science and technology .." The immense contributions of Latif Ebrahim include the internationally-famed multi-million H. E. J. Institute of Chemistry of the K'chi 'versity, He also funded several other equally essential projects and huge purpose-built buildings to the universities and other educational and medical institutions. Along with liberal donations to the essential civic and welfare causes and relief activities he extensively patronized and liberally supported the numerous Voluntary Organizations as well.

Membership: World Memon Federation (co-Founder); Pakistan Memon Federation (President); Pakistan Gujrati Assn (President) besides numerous welfare, cultural and literary bodies.

National Honor / Titles :

Pakistan: Sitara-e- Quaid-e-Azam;

Iran: Nishan-e-Humayun;

Germany: Knight-Commander.

CV: A top-ranking industrialist and world-famed personality, took pioneering lead in fostering Pakistan's strong economic ties, academic cooperation and trade relationship with different countries. A past Vice-president of the Pakistan Federation of Chamber of Commerce & Industry; headed the now defunct RCD Chamber of Commerce.

*Gujrat Karachi 2005

JANNO, Abdur Razzak.

A leading businessman and social figure
Extended liberal assistance to genuine causes and the deserving people.

Membership : All Pakistan Memon Federation(a past Vice-President) and several prestigious educational welfare and cultural bodies.

JATOI,

Comrade Hyder Bux

A prominent Freedom Fighter of Sukkur. Strived for the uplift of the struggling labour class particularly the Haries as well as the distressed widows and orphaned children. Established educational institutes for women besides a factory under a welfare body Sudhar Sabah for their gainful employment.

*1901 Larkana 1970

JAWAHARDIN, Fazal Ellahi.

He was Army and Royal Air Force Contractor and Karachi, and Land Lord of Karachi District.,

In the Quetta Earth-Quake in 1935 he rendered wonderful service to the refugees who had come to Karachi. He served as an Honorary Magistrate
First Class from 1930 to 1937, Justice of Peace., and First Class Magistrate, Karachi District from 1939, Head Warden A. R. P. Road since 1940, Coronation Medal awarded (1937) for Loyal services rendered during Civil Disobedience
Movement, helped the Government and Karachi Police in Riots in 1935. He was the Founder and President of Feroze Vernacular School[1927], was the founder of the grave yard of Anjumani-Mussalmanani-Punjals, Karachi, President
Anjumani-Musalmanani-Punjab, Karachi. He was the President Muslim Jamait Jamia Masjid
Kassaban and Idd Gah, Bunder Road,. President
Muslim community, the Chairman Muslim Housing Co-operative Society, Karachi, Member of Port Haj Committee, Karachi, Life Member of Muslim Gymkhana, Karachi, Life Member of Young Men's Muslim Association, Karachi,
Member of Muhammadan Committee Sindh
Madressah Tul Islam, Karachi from 1927 to 1941,

Elected Member of Cantonment Board, Honorary
Vice-Chairman of S.P.C.A. Karachi, Life Member of Anjamani-Taraqqi -Urdu, Karachi, Trustee of several mosques and Wakf properties in Karachi and Trustee of Karachi District, Wakf Properties.
He earned title of Khan Bahadur from the Government .

JEEVA, Nazim.

Unique, dynamic, driving force with progressive outlook. Much concerned with the problems of the patients in need of blood and more especially the Thalassemia affected children. established the ultra-modern Fatimid Foundation's Blood Bank for round-the-clock service.

Membership : the Fatimid Foundation(Founder-President); actively associated with many prestigious Voluntary Organizations.

JETHMAL,

Dayaram

He was born in 1845 at Hyderabad and got his early and primary education from a muslim akhund and breathe his last in 1887 when he was of 42 years old. He was one of first batch of 4 student those did matriculation from Bombay university.

JETMAL,

Dewan Dayaram.

A leading philanthropist of his time, well-known for his splendid lead in establishing the first-ever college in the Sindh region - the prestigious D. J.College of Science, K'chi during the late years of the 18th Century. Extended liberal assistance to the needy persons.

JINNAH, Madere-Millat Mohtarma Fatima.

The most devoted sister of the Quaid-e-Azam, and his strongest ally in the achievement of Pakistan.
Served as the beacon-light to the un-ending caravans of post-Partition refugees and attended to their re-settlement and rehabilitation services.
besides organizing instant distributions of huge quantities of relief material. Sponsored the establishment of vocational training centers for young ladies and actively patronized the newly established educational and welfare institutions all over the country.

 08.07.1967 Karachi

JINNAH,
Rai Ramzan Ali.

A devoted social worker actively associated with the Scouting Movement of the Ismaili community, the erstwhile Sea-Manship Council of Pakistan, and other leading Voluntary Organizations. Keenly interested in the spread of education in the rural areas and accordingly frequently toured the interior areas of the Badin District along with large teams of volunteers for enrolling out-of-school children in the local primary schools.

JOSEPH,
Castellio.

Born on 30th September 1891, at Goa and came to Karachi in December 1899. Educated at St. Patrick's High School and D.J.Sindh College. Took the LL.B degree in 1924. He was elected Municipal Councillor in 1927 for the Christians and Jewish Wards. Remained Acting Vice-President of the Karachi Municipality also. He was associated with many Social and Educational organizations.

JOSHI, Seth Doongursee.

First of all he worked as a Brokers to M;`s. David Sassoon & Co., Ltd., Bombay in its opening in 1904. At the same time he enlarged his own business and soon rose to prominence as a merchant in the city. In 1919 he was elected President of the All India Pushkarna Brahmin Conference. He has sent out several deserving students of his own community as well as other Brahmin communities for higher studies both here in India as well as to England. He was a fervent advocate of Female Education, in which cause he donated a handsome sum of Rs. 20,000!- to the Gujarati Education Society for its Girls High School, which was named after his amiable wife, Shrimati ,Jhaverbai. He was a great compassion for the dumb and infirm animals and managed the Karachi Panjrapore Association, an institution for the betterment and service of the suffering animals, of which remained the President JUMMA, Dr. Omer Wali Mohammad. A Neurological-Surgeon of international fame was closely associated with the Voluntary Organizations especially those related to his medical profession and of the Memon community.. Also liberally extended liberal financial support without least publicity to the deserving and promising students pursuing medical and other professional education. CV:MBBS.; FRCS. Founder head of the JPMC's Neurological Dept.

*Kathewar 1917 Karachi 1985

JUNANI,
Abdul Ghani Dadabhoy.

Took active part in the then Home Rule League and the Khilafat Movement and later played a leading role in the awakening of the Muslims of Kathiawar during the Pakistan Movement. Played a leading role in the socio-economic uplift of the Memon community in the pre-partitioned India, and one of the top-pioneers of the All India Memon Educational and Welfare Society. Continued his meritorious contributions in Pakistan and remained actively associated in the rehabilitation and welfare of his community people Took lead in the establishment of the Memon Hospital, K'chi.

Membership :The Pakistan Memon Educational & Welfare Society (a leading Founder); the Memon Medical Society (a leading Founder).

JUNEJO, Mai Kaller.

Where the males feared to tread and could not dare, the highly respected Mai often in the male dress and on horse-back, was a common sight in the District Courts and Offices of Nawabshah and neighboring Districts to timely help and solve the problems of the poor and depressed people especially the females against injustices and oppression. At times, she decided cases herself and even punished the offenders quite unquestionably - her decisions duly respected and unquestioned by the local officials and the public as well. Extended liberal social assistance to the needy families.

*Village, Sher Mohd. Junejo 1865 Nawabshah 1930

JUNEJO,

Rai Jan Mohammad Al-Mohajireen. A popular social worker devoted considerable attention to the problems of the masses and more especially wide-spread education in rural areas.

Strived for the construction of schools, roads, musafer-khanas and other essential public requirements. Extended liberal financial support to deserving families.

*Larkana 1888 Ajmer 1921

KABRAJI,

Goola Dinshaw.

A highly committed worker of the Parsee community from quite a young age, During the World War II, organized teams of lady volunteers for preparing thousands of well-stitched garments for presentation to the Armed Forces - thus a splendid contribution of the Parsee community.

Also motivated young ladies for getting trained in dress-making, cooking and other useful vocations.

Membership : KZBM; the (then) Indian Red Cross Society; the K'chi Ladies Assn. and other leading Voluntary Organizatios.

 Karachi 1986

KANDAWALLA,

Kassam Usman.

A well-known philanthropist, Kassam Usman extended liberal assistance to the essential social causes as well as to the educational institutions, active VOs and the deserving families and the students.

Membership : the Memon Relief Committee,

the Okhai Memon Jamaat and other leading Voluntary Organizations.

* Bombay 1919 Karachi 1980

KANDAWALA, Merwanji Edulji.

Born in Karachi on 13th August 1875, Landlord, Merchant, a shrewd businessman of long experience and landlord with extensive landed interest in Sindh. He initially worked as a Trustee of Karachi Parsi Anjuman Trust Funds and H. M. Khajurina Technical Trust Fund then elected as Chairman, KPAT Funds Agriculture Scheme, as the member of managing committee of BVS Parsi High School for a decade, he donated a Library on 27th January 1918 in memory of his parents Bai Dhunbai and Edulji Bejonji Kandawalla Library where his keen devotions for the education and growth of the students.

KATRAK, Sir, Cawasjee.

Top ranking dedicated citizen of Karachi, well-known for his generosity and services for welfare work. A highly spirited volunteer of the St. John Ambulance Assn., Sindh, and its standby Ambulance Brigade. Presented the organization with a purpose-built two-storied -Katrak Building, (behind the Empress Market) for its activities (1938). Other contributions include the famous Katrak Hall, (near the Empress market) which was readily available without charges to the programmes of the Voluntary Organizations for quite a long time.

Membership : The St. John Ambulance Assn., K'chi Br. (one of the Founders) The Indian Red Cross Society, K'chi Br. The KTS. IDR PWA, PFWA; PPRS; the Karachi Parsee Gymkhana Club and other prestigious national and local Voluntary Organizations.

National Award /Tittle : Knighted by the British King.

International VO Awards Knight of St. John from the UK-based parent-body.

CV & General: Leading Business and Shipping magnate.

* Karachi Karachi

KATRAK, Sohrab K. H.

He was a partner in the firm of Messrs. Katrak & Co., Karachi, and the Author of "Through Amanullah's Afghanistan". A Writer, an Orator and a world traveller. First class Honorary Magistrate, and Justice of Peace, Municipal Corporator representing the Karachi chamber of Commerce—the first Indian to be so represented a Port Trustee nominated by the Government. A Member of the Karachi Cantonment Board since its inception. The Divisional Superintendent, St. John's Ambulance Brigade. Managing Trustee of the Katrak Charity Trust, The Hormusji Katrak Hall. The President of the following institutions: (1) The Jehangir Peerozshaw Dubash Health Culture Institute (2) The Sind Historical Society (3) The Provincial Commissioner, Hindustan Scout Association (4) Max Denso Hall Clerical Library and Commercial Education Society. Director, Bharat Bank Ltd. (Karachi Branch). Vice-President, Sind Natural History Society. Secretary, Karachi Parsi Co-operative Housing Society Ltd. The Young Men's Zoroastrian Association. Treasurer of the Uetta Parsi Relief Fund. Member on the Council of Management of Ex-Service Association the only Indian Countess of Dufferin Fund, St. John Ambulance Association, Sind Provincial Co-operative Bank Ltd., Civil Hospital Nursing Association, Karachi Health Association, The S. P. C. A., The Mama Parsi Girls High School, The Bomanshaw Minocher Homji Parsi Patients Relief Association, Zoroastrian Club, The Sind Joint War Committee, a delegate on the Parsi Matrimonial Court.

KAZI, Allama I. I

The most distinguished and un-matched Muslim scholar and philosopher of Sindh, who amongst other things was deeply engrossed in the wide expansion of education for heralding the mass awakening of fellow-co-religionists. Besides relentless campaigns for social reforms, urged every other public figure as well as the educated persons to eradicate illiteracy and ignorance. Also called upon the younger generation to acquire knowledge and understand Islam properly. One of the key-founders of the first-ever Mosque in London, (where he regularly delivered the Friday-Sermons) besides establishing the first international Muslim body in UK - the 'Jamiyatul-Muslimeen'.

While heading the Sindh University often paid the fees of the deserving students from his own funds he also provided free boarding and lodging to scores of them in his ever open - to - all residence .

CV: Bar-at-Law . A leading advocate and educationist. As the Vice-chancellor of the Sindh University is credited for his everlasting contributions for its rapid expansion and progress. *Hyderabad 1886 Jamshero 1968

KAZI, Khuda Bux.

One of his great admirers writes that Kazi Khuda Bux "...as Mayor and Deputy Mayor Karachi...had the interest of the down-trodden people of Lyari foremost in his mind... gave top priority to education... accorded considerable attention for the development and progress of Karachi,... was a social reformer and rendered outstanding services in the cause of education..". An ever active citizen, Kazi Saheb was an ever-sought person in the social, cultural and political circles of the city. He was on the governing bodies of innumerable social welfare organizations, Sindh Madressah being his alma mater received his utmost attention.

As an advocate was extremely considerate to his hard-pressed clients. He was highly revered by the youth whom he constantly encouraged for proceeding to higher studies and to develop patriotism.

National Award /Title: 'Kaiser e-Hindh by the Viceroy of India.

CV: B.A.LL.B. A leading Advocate of the then Chief Court of Sindh and the Bombay High Court *Moro 1894 Karachi 1944

KAZMI, Maj. ® Manzoor Hussain.
A legendary Boy Scout for about seven decades from his age of 7 years till death. One of the first of the very few Muslim boys to be enrolled in this World Movement, soon after its establishment in India. Most dedicatedly served the PBSA as the Training Commissioner and International Commissioner besides other high ranking voluntary posts. One of the key-founders of the 'Jungle Mangal - Boy Scouts Camping Grounds' in the up-country and has trained hundreds of Scouters and Rovers year after year for their Wood Badge and different orientation courses. Actively participated in the international camps and conferences of the Movement
*Lucknow Karachi

KHALIQDINA, Ghulam Hussain.
Well-remembered for his famous contribution - the Ghulam Hussain Khaliqdina Hall, K'chi during the last quarter of the 18th century. Was actively associated with the political and local civic affairs of Karachi. An active co-worker of Hassan Ally Effendi in his extensive drive for the education and progress of the Muslims of Sindh and in the establishment of the Sindh Madressah-tul-Islam.

KHAN,
Agha Abdul Hameed
As the highly progressive Vice-President of the district Local Board, Sukkur, served as a driving force for the overall development of the city. One of the founders of the local District Red Cross Society (1938) and pioneered the establishment of the first-ever Red Cross medical center in the Sindh Province - a maternity home in Sukkur. Likewise was keenly interested in the spread of the Scouting Movement and for developing extra-curricular activities in schools.

*Sukkur  Sukkur1960

KHAN,
Dr. Akhtar Hameed.
Outstanding world authority in community development. Famed for his voluntary efforts in establishing the highly prestigious Orangi Pilot Project, for bettering the lot of thousands of under-privileged people - majority of them being migrants from the erstwhile East Wing of the country. His painstaking drive amongst many other things, have resulted in mass awakening towards education, self-help and socio-economic development, small credit schemes, environmental improvement and other multifarious progressive activities besides enlightening training programmes. It is to his sole credit that the Orangi Town tops literacy in the country with over 90% literate inhabitants. His earlier contribution is the world-famous Comila Rural Development Academy in the erstwhile East Wing
CV: M.A.Ph.D A top-ranking Federal Govt. official®
* 1914 Meerut Karachi 10 Oct: 1999

KHAN, Dr.Inamullah
Relentlessly strived to foster strong patriotism and pan-Islamic Brotherhood amongst the youth. Highly popular amongst the students and the youth besides the welfare and cultural Voluntary Organizations. Founder of the Motamar-e-Islami and received high respect from most of the Islamic countries. Recipient of several prestigious honors and awards.
CV : M.A. Ph.D. Insurance business

KHAN, Khan Bahadur, Khair Muhammad.
Generously funded the establishment of schools, students' hostels, hospitals and other essential welfare services in his home-town Shah Bander and other different areas of the then K'chi Dt. (now the Thatta Dt). Remained active Member of Karachi District Local Board for over 16 years and successfully campaigned for the improvement of civic services and other essential needs of the people. Served as the local leader of the National War Front during the 2nd World War.

National Honor /Title: Khan Bahadur
 1954

KHAN, Mian Muhammad Amin.
Spiritedly participated in various humanitarian activities. Well-known for his forceful advocacy of patriotism, human rights and religious tolerance. Also strived for Pan-Islamic Brotherhood.
*1913 **

KHAN, Khan Bahadur,
Mir Ghulam Muhammad
A self-made man with life-time noble belief and practice in Plain Living and High Thinking. An ardent advocate for the enhancement of education, liberally contributed for the establishment of two schools, a boarding house and created a handsome endowment fund as well. Established the first-ever maternity home in his hometown, Tando Bago which also served as the training centre for the local dais. Frequently organized mobile medical teams to combat the deadly Malaria fever. and seasonal epidemics. Liberally supported deserving families and promising students.
National Award / Title: 'Khan Bahadur'
* 1933

KHAN,
Khan Bahadur, Muhammad Panyalal.
Based near Batey Shahi was well-known for his inborn dedication in the cause of education and unlimited motivation and guidance to the seekers of knowledge and truth. A fast friend of the student community, quite liberally supported the hard-pressed students including boarding expenses, books and clothing.
National Award / Title : Khan Bahadur
*1884 1946

KHAN, Niaz Mohammad
Lahore-based popular and far-sighted Chief Commissioner of Karachi, N.M. Khan is well-known for his immense contributions in the development of the metropolis. Much dedicated for the promotion of Scouting and later a long time honorary Chief Commissioner of the PBSA (till death). Sponsored the establishment of the Gulistan-e-Scouts - the popular camping grounds for the Boy Scouts and Girl Guides. Actively patronized welfare and cultural Voluntary Organizations.
CV: CSP (originally ICS) Officer. Served as Federal Secretary at the time of the enforced retirement by the 1st Martial Law regime.
...Lahore

KHAN, Begum Raana Liaquat Ali
Outstanding world luminary with unparalleled leadership and drive for the emancipation of women besides extensive humanitarian services in the newly established Pakistan. Spiritedly led her internationally-famed All Pakistan Women Association with thousands of well-committed 'voluntary-service-cultured' members for relentlessly championing for their inborn rights beside establishing country-wide essential female education, health, education socio-economic projects.
*National Honor/ Title : Nishan-e-Imtiaz International VO Awards:*The rare Rene Sand Award of the International Council of Social Welfare, - Rome - 1960 and numerous other meritorious international honors and awards.
*CV:*M.A. Life consort of the Shaheed-e-Millat Nawabzada Liaquat Ali Khan; appointed as the country's first-ever Lady- Governor of Sindh. Earlier served as Pakistan's Ambassador in Italy and Morocco.
Birth. .Expired -K'chi.

KHAN, Miss Safia.

Dedicated educationist deeply committed for the progressive development of female education and eradication of social evils. Actively associated with the Girl Guides Movement., the KTS and other leading NGOs in the education and welfare sector.

CV: B.A.;B.Ed. Educationist ®.

KHAN,
Sardar Wahid Bux.

An active social figure of Nao Dero, Larkana, was closely associated with welfare services and established a much-needed maternity home in the vicinity. Also liberally supported civic and social causes and took keen interest in educational matters. Liberally supported deserving students for higher studies.
CV & General .Member of the Bombay Legislative Assembly from the Sindh Region - elected at quite a young age and later served on the Bombay Council of State as well.

*Nao Dero 1898  1933

Post-Script: The New Town Girls School, K'chi Where she served as Principal for many years is re-named after her - the Safia Girls High School.

KHAN, Sarfaraz.

Readily available for civic and welfare causes and in the service of the distressed refugees, T.B and leprosy patients and the disabled people. As an active worker of the PRCS spearheaded its first-ever voluntary blood donation service during the 1960's. Regularly sponsored anniversaries of the departed leaders.

Membership : PRCS; SRCC; SSCC; besides numerous other welfare and cultural bodies.

CV & General: A leading business-man and political leader. Senior Vice-President of the Pakistan Muslim League (Junejo Group) at the time of his sudden death.

*Nagpur Karachi

KHAN, Uroojul-Hassan.

A highly dedicated top ranking life-time Scout with a high record of humanitarian services. National Award: 'Pride of Performance,(Perhaps the only Scouter to be bestowed with this honor!).

CV: B.A.,B.Ed. Educationist in Govt. service.

KHAT, Haji Hasham.

One of the key-Founders of the well known Usman Hospital, K'chi, remained actively associated with a number of VO's in different capacities and made liberal contributions for genuine causes. A popular industrialist, and foreseeing the fast growing needs of the country in the years to come pioneered the establishment of the Usman Institute of Technology.

KHATRI,
Gul Mohammad

Actively engaged in voluntary services, Gul Mohammad was a leading member of the Khatri Welfare Assn. and associated with several welfare and cultural bodies of Karachi and was much concerned for the welfare of children. Patronized and freely guided the talented and promising Child Artists.

CV & General : An internationally acclaimed artist, with life-devotion to the portrayal and depiction of the ancient Indus valley civilization and rural folk sceneries.

*Karachi 1921  Karachi 1979

KHILNANI,
Korumal Chandumal

An active and undaunted spokesman on many a platforms led numerous deputations for solving the numerous problems of the masses and the neglected civic issues.

Also actively championed for the establishment of schools in the interior areas, unhesitatingly extended strong support to essential social causes and liberal assistance to the needy orphans and widows.

KHOSO,
Miskeen Jehan Khan

Born in a working-class family of Mirpurkhas, Miskeen Jehan served as police constable with absolute honesty and devotion. Deeply moved by the sufferings and deprivations of the poor people, suddenly left the police service mid-term to voluntarily serve the community and thus widely respected for his honesty and the spirit of sacrifice.

Strongly advocated for justice and fair deal to peasants and the landless labourers; besides the provision of basic amenities in the neglected areas and the urgency for the education of the out-of-school children.

KHURSHEED Mohammad, Dr.

One of the dedicated social worker of Sukkur and a long-time serving HGS of the District Red Crescent body. Along with his likewise spirited co-worker / Chairman (Maj. ® Agha Atta Mohammad Khan Pathan) saw to the progressive development of the Society's small maternity hospital into a full-fledged 100-bed Red Crescent General Hospital.

CV: MBBS.; Served as Dt. Health Officer, Sukkur.

KOTHARI, Seth Shivji.

He was a leading Land Lord, and a business man of Karachi. He was also interested in the then newly established Steel industrial concern of which he was the Managing Director. He was the President, Karachi Aero Club Ltd., President, Rotary Club of Karachi. Managing Director, Sindh Observer, Director, Sindh Daily Mail Ltd., Member of the Board of Karachi Indian Merchants Association, Member of the Board of Buyers and Shippers' Chamber, Hon : Secretary, Gujrat Education Society, Hon : Treasurer, Ayurvedic Tuberculosis Relief Association and Qjha Sanatorium, Hon : Treasurer, Sind Boys Scout Association, Joint Hon : Secretary and Treasurer, Karachi Children Welfare Society and Remand Home, Chairman, Chaturbhuj Parpia Trust. He had been a member of the Karachi Municipal Corporation, a Trustee of the Port of Karachi and a member of the North Western Railway Advisory Committee, in the past.

KUSHTIWALLA, Saeed.

A leading social elite of Karachi, never failing to extend liberal assistance to the deserving families and students. Likewise supported to various social causes and patronized educational, literary, cultural, health and welfare activities. Expired suddenly in the prime of life.

LAKHANI, A. Kader.

A well known Advocate, commenced social service from his student-days in his native town Bharnagar. Took active part in numerous social and civic causes.

Membership: APMF; Memon Relief Committee and other VOs

*Bharnagar India 1910, Karachi

LALWANI, Gopal H.

He was born on the 13th March 1907 and was from family of the Amils of Hyderabad. He was educated in the St. Patrick's High School and the D. J. Sind College He was a great sportsman, excelling at Hockey and Tennis, and was the best doubles player of his time in the College. He was the youngest Chairman of the H. L. Chablani Panchayat Dispensary, a leading member of the Amil Panchayat & Female Education Society, ex-General. Secretary of Amil Institute, Jt. Secretary of the Sindh Collegiate Old Boys' Association, a Director of the Hyderabad Amil Co-operative Urban Bank, Ltd., Trustee of the Gur Mandar, and a member of innumerable other Institutions. He was a Share Broker, Insurance Agent and Hotel Proprietor. He was a Sufi by religion, being a disciple of the Jhok Dargah. He was an active Congress member also.

LAYTON,

Gorden Graham.

Of him it is said:

"...A man with a vision and with a purpose to provide the poor and needy in Pakistan with free eye care..."

This tribute refers to his famous contribution-the Layton-Rahmatullah Benevolent Trust Eye Hospital, Korangi - jointly founded along-with his friend Zaka Rahmatullah an equally dedicated social worker.

CV: B.E. Headed a leading construction firm.

MALIK, Begum Hussain.

A leading founder-member of the APWA was actively associated in the rehabilitation and settlement of the incoming refugees. Membership:KTBPWA(Founder-President); K'chi Ladies Assn and other leading VOs
* ...Karachi

MAHMMOD, S. K.

The young spirited co-founder of the Student Welfare Organization, (estd: 1954) and its unique Book Bank (term coined by the Times of India, Bombay in its editorial eulogizing the project) along-with the legendary Yunus Rizvi benefiting thousands of deserving students year after year. (see also Rizvi, Yunus in this Section).Died at quite a young age.

'MAI KHAIRY'

Bibi Khairunnisa.

(Profile on the Introductory Page of this Part)
A great Legendary and highly respected name in unbridled philanthropy and social work is that of Mai Khairy a widow of a Zamindar. She expired about 150 years age at quite a ripe age and devoted most of her life time in serving the distressed and needy people. Often went to their door-steps without waiting for their request for help. Liberally helped large number of widows, orphans and in the wedding of poor girls. She is known for the construction of Mosques, Madrasahs. Musafirkhanas, Wells and other essential public needs.'

MAKHDOOM,

Mian Basheeruddin.

A highly learned and notable personality of Sehwan. Extensively practiced Unani Tib attracting thousands patients from far-off areas who were treated without any charge or material gain whatsoever.

Strongly advocated active participation in clean and undiluted political activities and for providing beneficial services to the fellow-men.
*1863 - 1938

MAKHDOOM,

Mian Ghulam Hyder.

A forefront social personality of Hala. Extensively promoted the cause of education and established institutions including the Services Islamic College, in his home-town.

MAKHDOOM,

Mian Zahiruddin.

Devoted himself in the service of the people, with unbounded generosity. Readily provided liberal monthly stipends to indigent families, widows and orphans without the least publicity. Constantly advocated the legitimate socio-economic improvement of the under-privileged masses.

* Hala Hala 1927

MAMA, K.B

Ardeshir H.

Another popular figure of Sindh, usually people earn money for themselves, hut Khan Bahadur earned for the welfare of the Public. A great Philanthropist and donated heavy amount in charity for the welfare of poor and low profile people including Mania Parsi Girls School, Mama Home for Poor Parsi families, Mama Hall Temples in Karachi, Sukkur, Mahableshtar, Mama Bath Mangho pir, Y. W. C. A. Building and Lady Dufferin Hospital, Karachi

MARFANI, A. Rahim.

A leading stalwart of the Pakistan Movement, Rajkot, served the Memon community in different responsible capacities including the then All-India Memon Conference as Joint Secretary (1932-1937). Later, settling down in Karachi, a year prior to Partition, pioneered in the establishment of the Pakistan Memon Educational and Welfare Society and the Memon Hospital.

MEHKRI, Dr. G. M.

Outstanding social scientist and sociologist with highly realistic and progressive outlook far ahead of time. Ever-readily available for free training and guidance in welfare services as well as in the multi-facet behavioral sciences, journalism, debating thus greatly benefiting the student-community in particular.

The only Muslim and South Indian amongst the first seven students of the famous Tata Institute of Social Work, (Bombay -1937) - the country's first-ever training center in Social Service Administration. Served as Faculty-member of the 1st-ever UNTAA-Govt. of Pakistan Social Welfare Training Course besides a popular guest-Professor at different universities. Actively participated at the two 4-yearly moots of the New York-based International Conference of Social Work (the present International Council on Social Welfare) at Madras(1952) and Toronto (1956).

One of the first young Muslim to become a Boy Scout during his school-days and later served as an energetic Field Organizer of the then Hindustan Scouts Movement.

CV: BA(Hons); Ph.D., DSSA Officer ®in the Federal Govt. Served on a short-term ECAFE assignment abroad Examiner and Paper-setter of the 'varsity Post-graduate exams.
Born: Bangalore ..Expired Karachi 16.8.1966.

MEHTA,
Jamshed Nusserwanjee.

The most illustrious and charismatic Mayor of Karachi and social work luminary of world-fame. An undisputed legendary for his unlimited generosity, city-development, ctivating social education and multi-facet welfare services. Unanimously elected President of the first-ever 'All India Conference of Social Work', (Bombay-December 1947) despite the Partition, - a highly befitting tribute indeed !

A leading Theosophist and cosmopolitan to the core, and a torch-bearer of tolerance and unity amongst all communities besides freedom of the country.

Membership ; the Indian (and later) / Pakistan Red Cross Society-Sindh Prov. Br. (the first-ever non-British Chairman); the KTS (President);IDPWA and numerous prestigious NGOs in different fields.

*Karachi 1986  Karachi 1.8.1952.

MEMON, Abdul Fateh.

A prominent personality of Nawabshah "devoted his life for organizing the Memon community", and made serious efforts for essential social reforms and the eradication of social evils, narcotics. Assisted the unemployed educated youth in securing suitable jobs.

CV: B.A.;L.L.B .Senior Advocate of the Sindh High Court. A leading parliamentarian and served as the Deputy Speaker of the National Assembly.

MEMON,
Mohammad Sadiq.

Belonged to a medium class family, received only school education, but was highly enlightened and far-sighted man strongly favored female education. Sent his four daughters to school much against the opposition of the prejudiced community even to the extent of social boycott, but he did not yield. Later when the girls were being sent to Jullendar for continuing their higher studies, by chance met another champion of female education - Khan Bahadur Mohammad